

Gender Breakout at NCC

Notable Women:

Anne Robertson Johnson Cockrill (1757-1821)
pioneer and frontier settler

Charlotte Robertson (1751-1843)
founded Nashville with husband

Sally Thomas (1787-1850)
born into slavery and became a business owner

Lucinda Bedford (1800-1893)
born into slavery and died a free woman as Nashville's wealthiest woman of color at the time

Mable Imes (1860-1935) and Ella Sheppard (1851-1914)
matriarchs of Fisk Jubilee Singers

1001 4th Ave S, Nashville, TN 37203

free and open to the public fro dawn until dusk daily

www.thenashvillecitycemetery.org

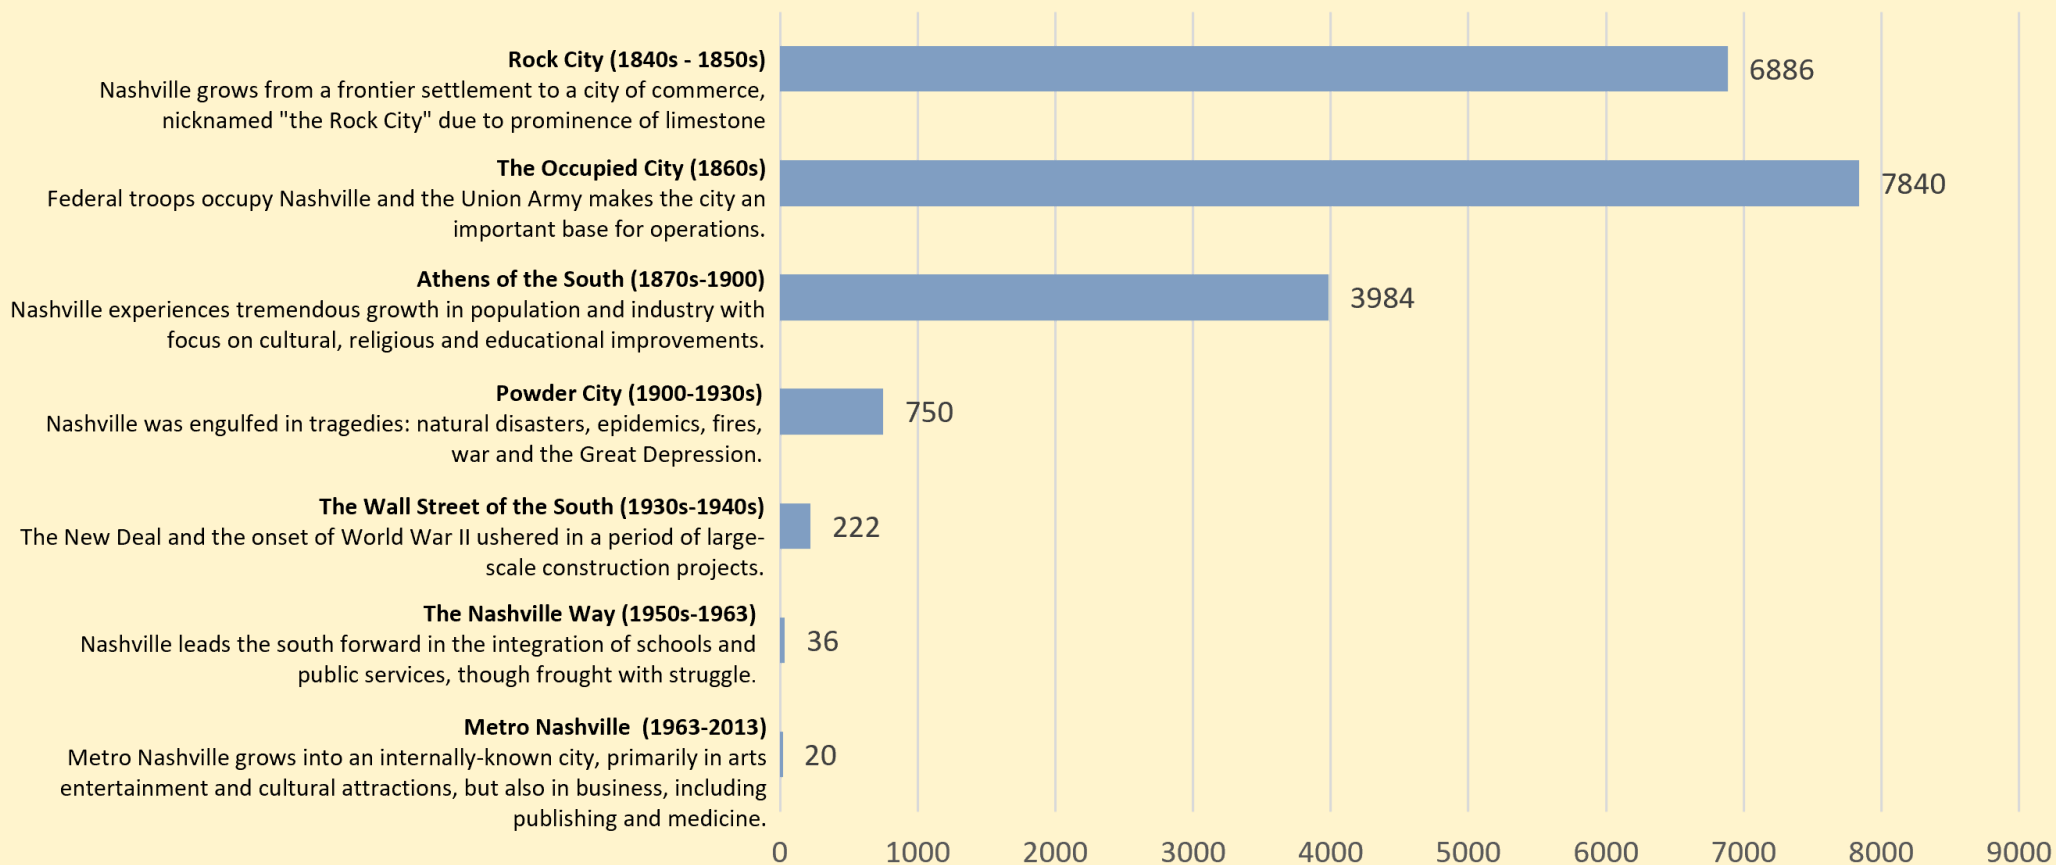

*Nashville
City
Cemetery*

stories that span the history of Nashville

The individuals and families buried at Nashville City Cemetery represent a cross section of Nashville history from varied walks of life - settlers and pioneers, governors, mayors, educators, young and old, enslaved and free. The stories of their lives are the story of Nashville.

Nashville Timeline - Number of Burials

* Nashville timeline abbreviated from the Nashville Historical Commission

Visit Nashville City Cemetery where stories span the history of Nashville.